| VICENTRY Austria REPORT NO. Wiener Neustadt airfield and Military Post 25X1 EVALUATION | | Approved For Release 20 | 25X1 25X1 005(12/01 : CIA-RDP80-00810A001800680004-4 |
|--|--|--|--|
| 25X1 EVALUATION PLACE OBTAINED DATE OF CONTEN DATE OBTAINED DATE OBTAINED LEGIB 1. Between # carm. and 10:30cm. on 19 May 1953, the following of county twere observed. State of the flight control station, takened to Ambient of the process, a westerly wind of about 5 km/h and good visibility. Construction work on the bunkers near the As gun amplicaments along the road to Baden apporarely was nearing coupleting, such likely, there would bunkers, and with a long-dwire entenance. Hearthy, there were four trucks. The As gun emplacements along the road apparently were uncoupled. It seemed that the construction work on the bunkers, and with a long-dwire entenance to you gas being placed shout half undersprot four As guns with flash hiders and muzule brakes were observed in the emplacements. Hearthy, there were four trucks. The As gun emplacements north of the kinens remark that Bad Picchau road apparently were uncoupled. It seemed that the construction of bunkers was completed there. Same anterial such as planks were stored at the skip. X1 The radar set in the southeastern corner of the field, north of the road bend between the flight control station. You trucks were posted at the flight control station. You trucks were posted in the surface observed ment for the flight control station. You trucks were proved in the flight control station. You trucks were proved in the flight control station. You trucks were parked in the roads around the statemarks the surface included was posted at the flight control station. You trucks were parked in the roads around the surface included was posted at the flight control station. You trucks were parked in the roads around the surface included was posted at the flight control station. You trucks were parked in the roads around the surface included was posted at the flight control station. You trucks were parked in the roads around the surface of the field. X1 There Fe-Ze and a Boston A 20-true plane. | COUNTR' | A | |
| EVALUATION PLACE OBTAINED DATE OF CONTEN DATE OF CONTEN DATE OBTAINED 1. Settleren & sim. and 10:30 a | | , | |
| DATE OF CONTENT DATE OFFARED 26 June 1953 REFERENCES PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (TOLE WEE REMARKS LLLEGIB 1. Setween # sum. and 10:30 mm. on 19 May 1953, the following encurst were observed at Wiener Wasstatt (O MAY 10 infield: 38 MG-15; M | - Walley | A STATE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE | THE TOTAL STATE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERT |
| DATE OF CONTEND DATE OFTENDED DATE PREPARED 26 June 1953 REFERENCES 2 ENCLOSINES (NO.E TYPE REMARKS LLEGIB 1. Between a.m. and 10:30 a.m. on 19 May 1953 the following advant, were observed at Wiener denstant to (AAT 3) airfield: 38 Mic-15s micholuting 12 parted on the dispersal area west of the flight coning station. Latvest of the road sign on the road to Beden and 12 in the agrossion are of the protectentical plant; 12 Pe-25 part of the road sign on the road to Reden; 1 single-engine plane with radial engine; 1 biplane. 30 air activity was observed. There was a 2/10 overcast, a westerly wind of about 5 km/h and good visibility. Construction work on the bunkers near the AA gun emplacements along the road to Baden appearently was nearing completion, as billeting equipment, such as 20 tots, hads arrived. A temporary building, smaller than the bunkers, and with a long-wire antenna on top, was being placed wheat half undergroup four AA guns with flash hiders and mixule brakes were observed in the publicancement. Nearby, there were four trucks. The AA gun emplacements north of the vinance levels and 4 fischul road apparently were uncoupled. It seemed that the construction of bunkers was completed there; Some material such as planks were stored at the slife. 1. The radar set in the southeastern corner of the field, north of the road bend between the flight control station and the target range had been removed. Which were black-bordered blue epsulets. Some material such as planks were stored at the slife. 1. The radar set in the southeastern corner of the field, north of the road bend between the flight control station and the target range had been removed. Which were black-bordered blue espallets. Some year againstallation on the eastern edge of the field. 2. The radar set in the southeastern corner of the field, north of the montain water pipes. Several railroad tank cars stood at intervals on the sput rack, Motor vehicles observed moving on the road sond the direct of the protein of the protein of the su | EVALUATI | ION PLA | ACE OBTAINED |
| DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 26 June 1953 REFERENCES PAGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 were REMARKS ILLEGIB 1. Between a.m. and 10:30 m. on 19 May 1953 the following of confit mere observed at Wiener desistant (0 444 36) sirfield: 38 Mic-15s minclusing 12 parked on the dispersal area went of the flight configuration of the parked of the proof sign on the road of dispersal area went of the flight configuration and the control of dispersal area went of the proof of the parked of the proof sign on the road sign on the road of sign on the road to flag and 12 in the degrees of the proof sign of the road sign of the proof of the proo | DATE OF | | |
| 25X1 1. Between # aim. and 10:30 are no 19 May 1952 the following educate there charged at Wiener Saustadt (0 MAX 3/2) airfield: 38 Min-15s mechaning 12 parked on the dispersal area west of the flight constrol station; 14 West of the prod signal, the road to flage and 12 in the degression set of the psyrotechnical plant; 12 Fe-2s west of the road sign on the road to flage and 12 in the degression set of the psyrotechnical plant; 12 Fe-2s west of the road sign on the road to flage and 12 in the degression set of the psyrotechnical plant; 12 Fe-2s west of the road sign on the road to flage and 12 in the degression set of the psyrotechnical plant; 12 Fe-2s west of the road sign on the road to flage and 12 in the degression set of the road sign of the wind of about 5 km/h and good visibility. Construction work on the bunkers near the AA gun supleasements set along the road to fladen apparently was nearing completion, as billeting equipment, such as 20 cots, had arrived, a temporary building, smaller than the bunkers, and with a long-wire antenna on too, was being placed shout half undergroup four AA guns with flash hiders and muzule trakes were observed in the supleasements. Hearby, there were four trucks. The AA gun contacements north of the linear Neurish Bad Fischau road apparently were unoccupied. It seemed that the construction of bunkers was completed there. Some material such as planks were stored at the shift control station and the target range had been removed. Vehicular traffic values which work the flight control station and the target range had been removed. We hicular traffic values which were parked in the garage installation on the eastern edge of the field. 2. The road as the flight control station. Not trucks were parked in the garage installation on the castern edge of the field. 3. There Fe-2s and a Boston A 21-troe plane There is and a Boston A 21-troe plane There is and a Boston A 21-troe plane The road for the road in front of the road in front of | DATE OB | TAINED_ | DATE PREPARED 26 June 1953 |
| 25X1 1. Between a nim. and 10:30 as on 19 May 1959, the following advantage observed at Biener dansteat (0 12 million) airfield: 38 Mid-195 michalding if parked on the dispersal area west of the flight control station, a levest of the road sign and 12 in the degression set of the pyrotechnical plants, 12 Pg-23 west of the road sign on the road to Baden and 12 in the degression set of the pyrotechnical plants, 12 Pg-23 west of the road sign on the road to Baden; i biplane. No air activity was observed. There was a 2/10 overcast, a westerly wind of about 5 km/h and good visibility. Construction work on the bunkers near the AA gun emplacements along the road to Baden apparently was nearing completion, as billetin equipment, such as 20 rots, had arrived a temporary building, smaller than the bunkers, and with a long-wire antenna on top, was being placed about half undergroup four AA guns with flash hidders and mizzle brakes were observed in the placements. Nearby, there were four trucks. The AA gun emplacements north of the Wiener Neustached Had fischau road apparently were unoccupied. It seemed that the construction of bunkers was completed there. Some material such as planks were stored at the side the flight control station and the target renue had been removed. Vehicular traffic observed near the flight control station included weapon carrier trucks the flight control station and the target renue had been removed. Vehicular traffic observed near the flight control station. No trucks were parked in the gauage installation on the eastern edge of the field. A spur track extended from the pyrotechnic plant toward the northeest south of the mountain water pipes. Several realized active are stood at intervals on the spur track. Motor vehicles observed moving on the roads around the adrived to mountain water pipes. Several with drivers wearing cocupied by soldiers wearing black-bordered blue end red-bordered black epaulets. There Fe-2s and a Boston A 21-tros plane were parked in front of the received and provide | REFEREN | CES | |
| 1. Between a aim. and 10:30 cm. on 19 May 1953, the following edrorsft were observed at Wiener Wantack (0 cm. 24) airfield: 38 MG-15s inactualing 12 parked on the dispersal area west of the flight control station. La West of the road sign, on the road to Baden and 12 in the degrees of the provice thinks 1 plants, 12 Page seet of the road sign, on the road to Baden and 12 in the degrees of the provice thinks 1 plants, 12 Page seet of the road sign, on the road to Baden and 12 in the degrees of the provice thinks 1 plants. No sir activity was observed. There was a 2/10 overcast, a westerly wind of about 5 km/h and good visibility. Construction work on the bunkers near the Angun emplacements along the road to Baden apparently was nearing completion, as billetin equipment, such as 20 gots, had arrived. A temporary building, smaller than the bunkers, and with a long-wire antenne on top, was being placed about half undergroup four AA guns with flash hiders and mizzle brakes were observed in the emplacements. Nearby, there were four trucks. The AA gun emplacements north of the Michael Bad Flochau road apparently were unoccupied. It seemed that the control to bunkers was completed there. Some material such as planks were stored at the side. 2. The roader set in the southeastern corner of the field, north of the road bend between the flight control station and the target range had been removed. Vehicular traffic observed near the flight control station included weapon carrier which were black-bordered blue epaulets. A sentry wearing blick-bordered blue spaulets was posted at the flight control station. Two trucks were perked in the grange installation on the eastern edge of the field. Is spur track extended from the pyrotechnic plant toward the northeest, south of the mountain water pipes. Several railroad tank cars stood at intervals on the spur track. Motor vehicles observed moving on the roads around the arfield included trucks Several realization of the provide the control of the field. There Fe-2s and a Bosto | PAGES | ENCLOSÜRES (NO. & TY | PE |
| 1. Between a.m. and 10:30 cm. on 19 May 1953, the following advant were observed at Miener Manstadt (0 cm. 12 May infield: 38 MG-15; matchinding 12 parked on the dispersal area west of the flight control station; 14 west of the road is many the road to baden and 12 in the degreesion set of the protechnical plant; 12 Page 3 west of the road 12 in the degreesion set of the protechnical plant; 12 Page 3 west of the road 12 in the degreesion set of the protechnical plant; 12 Page 3 west of the road 12 in the degreesion set of the protechnical plant; 12 Page 3 west of the road 12 in the degreesion set of the protechnical plant; 12 Page 3 west of the road 12 in the degreesion set of the protechnical plant; 12 Page 3 west of the road 12 in the degree 3 likely and 12 in the degree 4 | REMARKS | | |
| 1. Between a.m. and 10:30 cm. on 19 May 1953, the following eigerst were observed, at Wiener daustadt (0 1973) airfield: 38 Mid-15s machading 12 parked on the dispersal area west of the flight control station, 14 west of the road sign on the road to Baden and 12 in the degree all single-engine plants 12 Fe-2s west of the road sign on the road to Baden; i single-engine plants 12 Fe-2s west of the road sign on the road to Baden; i single-engine plane with radial engine; No air activity was observed. There was a 2/10 overcast, a westerly wind of about 5 km/h and good visibility. Construction work on the bunkers near the Aa gun emplacements along the road to Baden apparently was nearing completion, as billetin equipment, such as 20 cots, had arrived. A temporary building, smaller than the bunkers, and with a long-wire antenna on top, was being placed about half undergrou Four AA guns with flash hiders and muzzle brakes were observed in the emplacements. Nearby, there were four trucks. The AA gun emplacements north of the Wiener Neustac Bad fischau road apparently were unoccupied. It seemed that the construction of bunkers was completed there. Some material such as planks were stored at the side. 2. The radar set in the southeastern corner of the field, north of the road bend between the flight control station included weapon carrier trucks which were black-bordered blue epaulets. A sentry wearing blick-bordered blue epaulets was posted at the flight control station. Two trucks were parked in the garage installation on the eastern edge of the field. 2. The radar set in the southeastern corner of the field. 2. The radar set in the southeastern corner of the field, north of the road bend between the flight control station. Two trucks were parked in the garage installation on the eastern edge of the field. 2. The radar set in the southeastern corner of the field. 2. The radar set in the southeastern corner of the field. 2. The radar set in the southeastern corner of the field was present to the field of the fie | monare i met men ek ek ek ek ek ek ek | ILLEGIB | |
| 1. Between a.m. and 10:30. on 19 May 1953, the following of craft were observed at Wiener Maistadt (0 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 | h Tu at at a state of the state | | |
| 1. Between a.m. and 10:30. on 19 May 1953, the following of craft were observed at Wiener Maistadt (0 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 | 25X1 | | * |
| 33 MG-15s; McCluding 12 parked on the dispersal area west of the flight control station. 14 west of the road sign on the road to Baden and 12 in the degrees of the pyrotechnical plant; 12 Pe 2s west of the road sign on the road to Baden; 1 single-engine plane with radial engine; 1 biplane. No air activity was observed. There was a 2/10 overcast, a westerly wind of about 5 km/h and good visibility. Construction work on the bunkers near the As gun emplacements along the road to Baden apparently was nearing completion, as billeting equipment, such as 20 cots, had arrived. A temporary building, smaller than the bunkers, and with a long-wire antenna on top, was being placed about half undergroup four AM guns with flash hiders and muzzle brakes were observed in the emplacements. Nearby, there were four trucks. The AM gun emplacements north of the wiener Neustack Bad Fischau road apparently were unoccupied. It seemed that the construction of bunkers was completed there. Some material such as planks were stored at the side. The radar set in the southeastern corner of the field, north of the road bend between the flight control station and the target range had been removed. Vehicular traffic observed near the flight control station included weapon carrier the drivers of which were black-bordered blue epaulets and van-like truck trucks are parked in the garage installation on the eastern edge of the field. The radar set in the southeastern corner of the field. South of the mountain water pipes. Several radioon two trucks are parked in the garage installation on the eastern edge of the field. South of the mountain water pipes. Several radioon to trucks are parked in the airfield included trucks were parked blue and red-bordered black epaulets. Three Fe-2s and a Boston A 21-tree plane were parked in front of the resienfeld airfield. | et decision (English Angeles Lee | STONE CONTRACTOR OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPER | *  |
| 33 MG-15s; McCluding 12 parked on the dispersal area west of the flight control station. 14 west of the road sign on the road to Baden and 12 in the degrees of the pyrotechnical plant; 12 Pe 2s west of the road sign on the road to Baden; 1 single-engine plane with radial engine; 1 biplane. No air activity was observed. There was a 2/10 overcast, a westerly wind of about 5 km/h and good visibility. Construction work on the bunkers near the As gun emplacements along the road to Baden apparently was nearing completion, as billeting equipment, such as 20 cots, had arrived. A temporary building, smaller than the bunkers, and with a long-wire antenna on top, was being placed about half undergroup four AM guns with flash hiders and muzzle brakes were observed in the emplacements. Nearby, there were four trucks. The AM gun emplacements north of the wiener Neustack Bad Fischau road apparently were unoccupied. It seemed that the construction of bunkers was completed there. Some material such as planks were stored at the side. The radar set in the southeastern corner of the field, north of the road bend between the flight control station and the target range had been removed. Vehicular traffic observed near the flight control station included weapon carrier the drivers of which were black-bordered blue epaulets and van-like truck trucks are parked in the garage installation on the eastern edge of the field. The radar set in the southeastern corner of the field. South of the mountain water pipes. Several radioon two trucks are parked in the garage installation on the eastern edge of the field. South of the mountain water pipes. Several radioon to trucks are parked in the airfield included trucks were parked blue and red-bordered black epaulets. Three Fe-2s and a Boston A 21-tree plane were parked in front of the resienfeld airfield. | | | |
| 38 MG-15s machain 12 parked on the dispersal area west of the flight control station. Makest of the real sign on the road to Baden and 12 in the degrees of the pyrotechnical plant; 12 Pe 2g west of the read sign on the road to Baden; 1 single-engine plane with radial engine; 1 biplane. No air activity was observed. There was a 2/10 overcast, a westerly wind of about 5 km/h and good visibility. Construction work on the bunkers near the As gun emplacements along the road to Baden apparently was nearing completion, as billetin equipment, such as 20 cots, had arrived. A temporary building, smaller than the bunkers, and with a long-wire antenna on top, was being placed about half undergrou Four AA guns with flash hiders and muzzle brakes were observed in the emplacements. Nearby, there were four trucks. The AA gun emplacements north of the Wiener Meustac Bad Fischau road apparently were unoccupied. It seemed that the construction of bunkers was completed there. Some material such as planks were stored at the side. The radar set in the southeastern corner of the field, north of the road bend betwee the flight control station and the target range had been removed. Vehicular treffic observed near the flight control station from the general blue epaulets. A sentry wearing black-bordered blue epaulets was posted at the flight control station. Two trucks were parked in the garage installation on the eastern edge of the field. A spur track extended from the pyrotechnic plant toward the northeast south of the mountain water pipes. Several railroad tank cars stood at intervals on the spur track. Motor vehicles observed moving on the roads around the atrifield included trucks were place. With drivers wearing black-bordered blue epaulets, and driving school trucks coccupied by soldiers wearing black-bordered blue and red-bordered black epaulets. Three Fe-2s and a Boston A 21-tree plane Theresienfeld airfield. | * | | |
| The radar set in the southeastern corner of the field, north of the road bend between the flight control station and the target range had been removed. Vehicular traffic observed near the flight control station included weapon carrier trucks and van-like truck the drivers of which were black-bordered blue epaulets. A sentry wearing black-bordered blue epaulets was posted at the flight control station. Two trucks were parked in the garage installation on the eastern edge of the field. A spur track extended from the pyrotechnic plant toward the northeast south of the mountain water pipes. Several railroad tank cars stood at intervals on the spur track. Motor vehicles observed moving on the roads around the airfield included trucks with drivers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, and driving school trucks occupied by soldiers wearing black-bordered blue and red-bordered black epaulets. Three Fe-2s and a Boston A 20-type plane were parked in front of the resienfeld airfield. Between 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. on 19 May, the following ground radio installations | | bunkers, and with a long-wire Four AA guns with flash hider Nearby, there were four truck Bad Fischau road apparently w | edsarrived. A temporary building, smaller than the antenna on top, was being placed about half underground and muzzle brakes were observed in the emplacements. The AA gun emplacements north of the Wiener Neustadians are unoccupied. It seemed that the construction of |
| observed near the flight control station included weapon carrier trucks and van-like truck the drivers of which were black-bordered blue epaulets. A sentry wearing black-bordered blue epaulets was posted at the flight control station. Two trucks were parked in the garage installation on the eastern edge of the field. a spur track extended from the pyrotechnic plant toward the northeast, south of the mountain water pipes. Several railroad tank cars stood at intervals on the spur track. Motor vehicles observed moving on the roads around the airfield included trucks with drivers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, and driving school trucks occupied by soldiers wearing black-bordered blue and red-bordered black epaulets. Three Pe-2s and a Boston A 20-troe plane were parked in front of Theresienfeld airfield. Between 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. on 19 May, the following ground radio installations | • | | |
| boserved hear the flight control station included weapon carrier and van-like truck which wore black-bordered blue epaulets. A sentry wearing black-bordered blue epaulets was posted at the flight control station. Two trucks were parked in the garage installation on the eastern edge of the field. a spur track extended from the pyrotechnic plant toward the northeast, south of the mountain water pipes. Several railroad tank cars stood at intervals on the spur track. Motor vehicles observed moving on the roads around the airfield included trucks with drivers wearing red-bordered black epaulets black-bordered blue epaulets, and driving school trucks occupied by soldiers wearing black-bordered blue and red-bordered black epaulets. Three Pe-2s and a Boston A 20-troe plane were parked in front of Theresienfeld airfield. Between 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. on 19 May, the following ground redio installations | .1 = === | The Ilight control station and | d the target range had been removed. Vehicular traffic |
| spaulets was posted at the flight control station. Two trucks were parked in the garage installation on the eastern edge of the field. a spur track extended from the pyrotechnic plant toward the northeast, south of the mountain water pipes. Several railroad tank cars stood at intervals on the spur track. Motor vehicles observed moving on the roads around the airfield included trucks with drivers wearing red-borde black epaulets with drivers wearing black-bordered blue epaulets, and driving school trucks occupied by soldiers wearing black-bordered blue and red-bordered black epaulets. Three Pe-2s and a Boston A 20-type plane were parked in front of Theresienfeld airfield. Between 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. on 19 May, the following ground radio installations | | trucks | rol station included weapon carrier the drivers of |
| a spur track extended from the pyrotechnic plant toward the northeast south of the mountain water pipes. Several railroad tank cars stood at intervals on the spur track. Motor vehicles observed moving on the roads around the airfield included trucks with drivers wearing red-borde black epaulets black-bordered blue epaulets, and driving school trucks occupied by soldiers wearing black-bordered blue and red-bordered black epaulets. Three Fe-2s and a Boston A 20-type plane were parked in front of Theresienfeld airfield. Between 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. on 19 May, the following ground radio installations | | epaulets was posted at the fla | ight control station. Two trucks were parked in the |
| intervals on the spur track. Motor vehicles observed moving on the roads around the airfield included trucks with drivers wearing red-borde black epaulets with drivers wearing black-bordered blue epaulets, and driving school trucks occupied by soldiers wearing black-bordered blue and red-bordered black epaulets. Three Pe-2s and a Boston A 20-type plane were parked in front of Theresienfeld airfield. Between 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. on 19 May, the following ground redio installations | 1 | a spur track extend | ed from the pyrotechnic plant toward the northeast, |
| airfield included trucks with drivers wearing red-borde black epaulets with drivers wearing black-bordered blue epaulets, and driving school trucks occupied by soldiers wearing black-bordered blue and red-bordered black epaulets. Three Pe-2s and a Boston A 20-type plane were parked in front of Theresienfeld airfield. Between 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. on 19 May, the following ground redio installations | | intervals on the spur track. | ipes. Several railroad tank cars stood at Motor vehicles observed moving on the roads around the |
| black-bordered blue epaulets, and driving school trucks occupied by soldiers wearing black-bordered blue and red-bordered black epaulets. Three Pe-2s and a Boston A 20-type plane were parked in front of Theresienfeld airfield. Between 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. on 19 May, the following ground redio installations | | airfield included trucks black epaulets | with drivers wearing red-bordere |
| Three Pe-2s and a Boston A 20-type plane were parked in front of Theresienfeld airfield. 4. Between 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. on 19 May, the following ground redio installations | 1 | black-bordered blue epaulets, occupied by soldiers wearing | and driving school trucks |
| Were parked in front of Theresienfeld airfield. 4. Between 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. on 19 May, the following ground redio installiations | | | |
| 4. Between 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. on 19 May, the following ground radio installations and searchlights were observed at Wiener Neustadt airfield and north of it; | [1 | Theresienfeld airfield. | were parked in front of |
| | , | Between 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. and searchlights were observed | on 19 May, the following ground radio installations i at Wiener Neustadt airfield and north of it; |
| CLASSIFICATION SECRET/ | | | |

| | | SECRET/ |
|----|---------------------------------------|---|
| | | - 2 |
| | c. d. e. | Felixdorf (0 48/X 35). A PKV-45 DF station located 1 km northwest of Theresienfeld railroad station. An antenna mast with a cone-shaped bracing 750 meters northwest of Theresienfeld railroad station. The inner runway localizing beacon about 1,250 meters southwest of Theresienfeld railroad station. The northern row of seven white searchlights south of the inner runway localizing beacon extended in south-southwest direction for a length of about 500 meters. The southern row of four red searchlights extended in eastwest direction about 800 meters north of and paraliel to the Wiener Neustadt - Bad Fischau road. The radio installation consisting of a van-like truck with a rod antenna, located in the northwestern corner of the yard of the Artillerie Kaserne. A long-wire antenna near the AA gun emplacement at the road to Baden. |
| 5. | wor bor by gar bor gun | Artillerie Kaserne in Wiener Neustadt military post was guarded by sentries who e black-bordered blue epaulets. Sedan with driver wearing black-dered blue epaulets entered the barracks yard. The Nachrichten Kaserne was guarded soldiers wearing black-bordered blue epaulets. A van-like truck was observed in the age. The cantonment west of Wiener Neustadt was guarded by sentries wearing reddered black epaulets. Two trucks were observed in the garages and 6 trucks and 4 Am with flash hiders and muzzle brakes in front of them. |
| | 066 | upled by a fighter division headquarters and two fighter regiments. |

SECRET/

25X1

25X1 25X1